

Kat Burki Web Site Copy 5/3/2006

Home Page- Welcome to Kat Burki Design.

If you've come seeking sophisticated, elegant designs perfectly balanced with classic understatement and bold, vibrant colors for your home or business, Kat Burki Designs is exactly the right choice. We invite you to browse this Web site or even better to visit with Kat at her studio or in your home. You'll soon discover how her unique and intuitive approach to interior design can create rooms poised with formal simplicity and stylish comfort. Most of all, you'll feel a sense of personal expression as beautiful colors, textures and designs combine to grace and enhance your home.

About Us Page –

In a very short time, Kat Burki has established a reputation nationally as an interior designer with whom clients really enjoy working. Whether it is a complete design of some of America's most beautiful houses or her ability to transform individual rooms using existing antiques, Kat's intuitive touch consistently combines classic elegance with genuine warmth and comfort.

Kat Burki's design studio in Southport Connecticut features a handpicked selection of furniture, pictures and fabrics, as well as items from Kat's newly-launched personal line of home décor accessories.

What We Do Page –

Stylish magazines do not seem to be able to get enough of Kat Burki's designs. Ads and stories have appeared in magazines such as Panache and Veranda and clients from Long Island to California, from Newport to Palm Beach have embraced Kat Burki's use of a vibrant color palate, her sophisticated sense of balance and her elegant designs to create beautiful rooms and stunning landscapes. Locally, Westport, Greenwich, Darien and New Canaan Magazines have in production full story spreads about Kat's fabulous makeover of a Connecticut homes and have featured her thoughts and insights on everything from accessories to mudrooms. Fairfield Magazine featured a story and pictures about Kat's Christmas decorating ideas in its inaugural issue for December 2005. Kat writes a regular article on design and good taste for the Good Living section of Journal-Register papers in Westport and Fairfield.

In addition, Kat's designs have been highlighted in the celebrated "Rooms with a View," an annual Albert Hadley's designer event covered by the New York Times and papers throughout Connecticut. Also, Kat's own home will be featured in the Far and Near Designer House tour for 2006.

Portfolio Page –

A Seasonal Special

Kat Burki Interiors always has a special product or service in tune with the season. This Spring, Kat is launching a new line of stunning and colorful pillows (the previous line sold out almost immediately). Other accessories will be introduced throughout the year.

Products Page –

For Spring 2006, Kat Burki is featuring vibrantly colored accent pillows. These pillows are individually created by Kat and can be used individually or as a coordinated grouping. Kat can even custom design pillows for a particular room or setting.

In addition, Kat is gradually launching two complete lines of accessories.

The Hampton Line evokes long, lazy Long Island summers of sail boats, hammocks, a good book or two and, of course, family and friends. These accessories provide just the right touch of warmth and function to already elegant rooms in preparation for the arrival of family and friends.

- Crisp white linen table cloths and napkins with ruffles will grace your dining table
- You'll use these sturdy and useful natural woven serving trays and baskets for elegant serving
- Have this summer weight cashmere blanket accented with small cable edging to wrap yourself in when the sun goes down
- Linen pillow covers with satin ties make for a lovely, inviting look for your bed or chaise lounge
- These 500 thread count cotton pillow covers with lace edging provide a crisp, cool feel to lay your head
- A white pre-washed linen comforter with linen ties over a silk comforter (?) for your bed accented by a white sheer bed skirt
- This cream colored ceramic container will be in constant use all year long

The Paris Line combines all the sophisticated elegance of that City of Lights with a bright, inviting colors that will bring your room to life.

- This "Kat Burki Green" super soft cashmere blanket will wrap you in luxury
- A green and yellow floral chiffon bed skirt is the perfect touch in the bedroom
- A pale yellow leopard pillow with matching floral chiffon ruffles is a unique accent for bed or chair
- This High tweed count soft yellow sheets and white sheets with yellow piping bring together the entire bedroom suite

- A large yellow and white check cotton table cloth adds just the perfect note of whimsy to your table
- You'll find yourself using these short, heavy glass candle holders whenever the sun goes down
- These blue and white ceramic containers will draw admiring glances
- Yellow and white checkered table cloth is complemented perfectly with these white eyelet napkins for your table
- These white porcelain plates and serving platters will create can be formal or casual depending on the occasion
- Short white candles are oversized and stout to provide a striking accent

In The News Page –

Need copy for page

Contact Page –

Will feature contact form elements